

CROSSROADS Calvin Russel

1. I´m standing at the crossroads, there are many roads to take,
but I stand here so silently,
for fear of a mistake.

Refr.: One path leads to paradise,
one path leads to pain,
one path leads to freedom,
but they all just look the same

2. I´ve travelled many roads, and not all of them were good.
The foolish ones taught more to me,
than the wise ones ever could.

Refr.: One path leads to sacrifice,
one path leads to shame,
one path leads to freedom,
but they all just look the same...

´Cause there were roads - I never travelled.

There were turns I did not take.
There were mysteries I left unravelled,
but leaving you - was my only mistake

3. So I´m standing at the crossroads, imprisoned by this doubt,
as if by doing nothing-
I might find my way out.

Refr. One path leads to paradise...
There were roads, I never travelled ...
